Proposition

Transcend into a
New Era of Travelling

Objectives / Goals

Short-term

I. Maintaining Hong Kong's exposure in preparation for reopening

Medium-to-long term

II. Creating a smart travel experience

Shopping

With Metaverse, we can now shop from around the world and around the clock

Effortless but immersive experience
Shopping will no longer be firing in our metaverse. Enjoy our shopping paradise without queuing and waiting!

Customizable shopping experience
Decide your shopping journey in metaverse without geological and time limitations! Visit all kinds of shopping malls and weekend markets all at once!

Accommodation

The concept of metaverse hotels and Airbnb recreate the blissful services and entertainment. Meeting and enjoy to meet with friends and family.

Preview room designs upon arrival
Avatars can create and design their ideal hotel rooms, especially for special celebrations (e.g., birthday and honeymoon)

Metaverse hotels can provide a virtual environment, sharing travel expectations and experience, or even be friends in real life

Transportation

With so much work happening in the virtual world, the metaverse will realize a highly networked future in which a new way of jumping and hopping across traffic networks emerges.

Don't let Covid-19 stop you from exploring the world
The metaverse has replaced our wasteful ways of moving around with more efficient digital alternatives and enhanced all the ways we still want to move around in real life.

A Highly Networked Future
The metaverse will realize a highly networked future in which a new way of jumping and hopping across transportation networks emerges.

We want to re-create Hong Kong in the metaverse of HKTWB to promote the city in every extent.

Entertainment

Allowing tourists to virtually visit a destination or attend a festival with friends

Meet with your friends
Some of these friends may be on-site at the festival while others attend virtually, through holograms or their avatars

Interact real-time
Interact with the visitor in 3D and real-time – not only as a complement to the real attraction but also as a stand-alone digital attraction for visitors in the metaverse

Promotion

metaverse

KOL suggestion

Hins Cheung

Recent work on the metaverse

- Have 'Hertz city' in the metaverse world
- Have online performance experience
- Has his own dedicated metaverse Avatar

Learning

Recreating historical, environmental and cultural landscape on metaverse to promote ecotourism and cultural tourism

Immersive experience

Offering immersive and interactive experiences for visitors that are not on site through VR or metaverse / NFC 'city hunt' game

Nature and historic conservation

Work with different authorities (e.g., Urban Renewal Authority, Environmental Protection Department) to preserve significant heritage and geological landscapes online

What is the trend of doing outdoor activities?

OUTDOOR PARTICIPATION GROWS AMID COVID-19

HK is famous for urban hiking

One thing I've noticed while attending hiking events across Asia and Europe is that overseas climbers are always surprised by how light we pack. Compared to their hiking equipment – which usually includes several days' worth of clothing, food and other essentials, all stuffed into an oversized rucksack – Hongkongers seem totally underprepared for the occasion, with just a smartphone, a water bottle and a few light snacks. We're spoiled by the clear signage – and easy access to convenience stores.

HOW HIKING BECAME AN INTEGRAL PART OF HONG KONG'S CULTURE

For Hongkongers, hiking is a way of life. And with stunning views 15 minutes from home, you can't blame them

By Tappy Lau 27 November 2019

Hong Kong SAR Walking and cycling Nature and outdoors

Arguably the best part about Hong Kong is having access to one of the largest cities in the world yet only being 20-30 minutes away from gorgeous mountains, peaks and hills. HK takes their surrounding nature very seriously, protecting 75% of the available land (hence why they build up!).

The hikes range anywhere from this-is-easy! to am-I-dying? But regardless of the difficulty, you will be astonished that in such a short time, you can completely remove yourself from the city.

It's a great (and sometimes necessary) way to recharge the batteries and get away from the chaos of downtown. This is a good resource to get you started on some of HK's best hikes.

Shopping

With Metaverse, we can now shop from around the world and around the clock

Effortless but immersive experience
Shopping will no longer be firing in our metaverse. Enjoy our shopping paradise without queuing and waiting!

Customizable shopping experience
Decide your shopping journey in metaverse without geological and time limitations! Visit all kinds of shopping malls and weekend markets all at once!

Accommodation

The concept of metaverse hotels and Airbnb recreates the realistic services and entertainments, allowing people to enjoy and meet wherever

Preview room designs upon arrival
Avatars can create and design their ideal hotel rooms, especially for special celebrations (e.g., birthday and honeymoon)

Making friends in the metaverse
Guests can meet and interact in virtual environment, sharing travel expectations and experience, or even be friends in real life

Transportation

With so much work happening in the virtual world, the metaverse will realize a highly networked future in which a new way of jumping and hopping across traffic networks emerges.

Don't let Covid-19 stop you from exploring the world
The metaverse has replaced our wasteful ways of moving around with more efficient digital alternatives and enhanced all the ways we still want to move around in real life.

A Highly Networked Future
Enlist a new way of jumping and hopping across transportation networks emerges.
